

In this talk we study the continuity of second derivatives of solutions to the Monge-Ampere equation arising in optimal transportation. When the inhomogeneous term is merely Holder or Dini continuous, we obtain Holder or general continuity estimates for second derivatives and corresponding regularity results for potentials in optimal transportation. This is a joint work with Neil Trudinger and Xu-Jia Wang.