In the early 80's Hawking et al. generalized the positive mass theorem to include charge. It was conjectured that the case of equality should occur only for the extremal black hole solutions known as Majumdar-Papapetrou spacetimes. Chrusciel et al. confirmed this under extra assumptions. In this talk we will show how these extra hypotheses may be removed. This is joint work with Gilbert Weinstein.