I will study the singular limit of a Ginzburg-Landau type equation where the laplacian is replaced by the half-laplacian. In a suitable limit, solutions will converge to so-called boundary harmonic maps, which are a special class of harmonic maps with a free boundary.