

We will discuss the limit from the Boltzmann equation towards the Navier-Stokes-Fourier system in a bounded domain. We observe two boundary layers: a viscous one and a kinetic one. The acoustic waves are damped due to these boundary layers. This is joint work with Ning Jiang.